FAREWELL MESSAGE

From Parents

Kabelo Makola

Matthew 6:25

To our son, Bohlale Phetogo Makola, our best friend:
God has shown his wisdom through you and you changed our lives. You taught us about life in the short time we had with you. For a son who listens to his parents, adds years to his life. You always listened to your parents and teachers but because you were an angel on earth, God saw that you are better serving with Him by His side. I hope we made you proud as your parents, as you've made us proud as our son. It was a privilege, blessing and an honour to have been your chosen parents to raise a humble, respectable, funny, loving and courageous son in this strange world.

Daddy and Mommy love you forever, until we meet again.

Christina Makola

To our son, Bohlale, Shimanke, Maputla:

The day you were born brought joy and happiness to our lives. You were a quiet, humble and loving son. I still remember how everyone had been contemplating what your name should be, but because you were our gift from God, we saw it fit that we name you "Bohlale Phetogo" (Wisdom for Change). Indeed you have lived your life giving us wisdom and have changed our lives in the years that we were gifted with you.

You have touched so many lives in different ways through your laughter, humbleness and caring nature. You showed your leadership and service to God by always wanting to help where you could.

I pray to God that as you have gone back to The Creator, may you go with love and peace surrounding you. No words can describe how we are feeling right now but you are the joy of our lives and the source of our dearest memories that we will cherish forever. You are the inspiration to our fondest wishes and the sweetest peace that life could ever offer.

With love, from your family on earth.
